

Hay

Brought to you by

Photography by Geoffrey McLean
McLean Research Associates

Hay is cut grass.

The tractor mows the grass.

The tractor tedders the grass.

The teddar spreads the grass out.

The sun dries the grass.

The dry grass is now called hay.

The tractor rakes the hay into rows.

Tractor bales the hay.

The hay is for cows, horses, sheep and goats to eat.